International Puppy 2014 Contest

Admission is FREE!

November 8 - 10, 2013, Puppy Graphics presents International Puppy 2014 Contest, during Tampa Bay Leather n Fetish Pride 2013. This is International Puppy's 2nd Annual contest held in St. Petersburg, Florida at the Flamingo Resort.

International Puppy was created to celebrate the puppy community and show the best of the best from around the country and around the world. It is all about giving puppies of any gender with or without owners or trainers a place to show off, have some fun, win cash and earn a title at the same time.

In 2012 International Puppy & Tampa Bay Leather n Fetish Pride had over 2000 spectators over the entire weekend. Woof Roth & Puppy Boo put on Puppy 101 demo that at the end had a puppy pile, after Woof Roth tossed a box of Scooby Snacks into the audience. A puppy obstacle coarse was set up and there were more wipe outs and sore puppies as they raced for the trophy.

This year we are making more exciting by adding better Mosh Pits and NEW categories to the event. This year we are expecting over 3000 spectators from around the country and around the world. With pups from Florida to Canada and as far away as England. This year promises to be very exciting!

In addition to the puppy contest, the Tampa Bay Leather n Fetish Pride staff will again be observing all of the puppies attending the event (even those not participating in the contest) and awarding the Bill (Trooper) Boyd "Best in Show" Memorial Award to the puppy they feel best conducts themselves as a puppy in and out of pup gear.
